Communion Statement - The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, are kindly asked first to speak with the pastor. In addition to this being our practice, we do not want our visitors to violate their own conscience or the public confession of faith that is made through their home Church membership. Those not receiving communion are invited to come forward with arms crossed to receive a blessing from the pastor. We thank you for respecting our practice. For further study, see Matt. 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15–35; 26:26–29; 1 Cor. 11:17–34.

Introit

Psalm 75:1-2, 6, 9; antiphon: v. 7

- P It is God who executes judgment,
putting down one and lifting up another.
- C We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks, for your name is near. We recount your wondrous deeds.
- P At the set time that I appoint
I will judge with equity.
- C For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up.
- P But I will declare it forever;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
- C Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and will be forever. Amen.
- P It is God who executes judgment,
putting down one and lifting up another.

Collect of the Day

- P O Lord of grace and mercy, teach us by Your Holy Spirit to follow the example of Your Son in true humility, that we may withstand the temptations of the devil and with pure hearts and minds avoid ungodly pride; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gradual

Psalm 34:9, 19, alt.

- P Fear the Lord, you his saints,
for those who fear him lack nothing!
Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
but the Lord delivers him out of them all.

Below you will find a model you can use for your personal or family devotions that focuses you on the readings from the previous Sunday, while also preparing you for what you will hear the following Sunday. Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 842 – Son of God, Eternal Savior

Pray the Collect of the Day: O Lord of grace and mercy, teach us by Your Holy Spirit to follow the example of Your Son in true humility, that we may withstand the temptations of the devil and with pure hearts and minds avoid ungodly pride; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Wed. 9/3: Read the Gospel lesson: Luke 14:1-14 – Christ humbled Himself and was exalted on the cross, inviting you to move up higher into His eternal banquet feast.

Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 842 – Son of God, Eternal Savior

Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 9/1)

Thur. 9/4: Read the Old Testament lesson: Deuteronomy 30:15-20 – Holding fast to God and His commands brings life; turning away from God brings death.

Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 853 – How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord

Pray the Collect of the Day: O merciful Lord, You did not spare Your only Son but delivered Him up for us all. Grant us courage and strength to take up the cross and follow Him, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Fri. 9/5: Read the Epistle lesson: Philemon 1-25 – Through faith in Christ, we are all freed from slavery to sin and joined together as beloved brothers and sisters.

MEMBERS AND GUESTS:

If you are partaking of the Lord's Supper, please read and fill out one of the registration cards on the back of the pew. You may place it in the offering plate or hand it to the usher. Please also see the communion statement on the inside of the bulletin.

Families and Children:

We are glad you are here to receive the Lord's gifts together. Your presence is a gift from God and a reminder of Christ's words: "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 19:14)
