Communion Statement - The Lord’s Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord’s body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, are kindly asked first to speak with the pastor. In addition to this being our practice, we do not want our visitors to violate their own conscience or the public confession of faith that is made through their home Church membership. Those not receiving communion are invited to come forward with arms crossed to receive a blessing from the pastor. We thank you for respecting our practice. For further study, see Matt. 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15–35; 26:26–29; 1 Cor. 11:17–34.

Introit

Isaiah 61:10; antiphon: Psalm 146:2

P I will praise the Lord as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

C I will greatly rejoice in the Lord;
my soul shall exult in my God,
P for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation;
he has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
C as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and will be forever. Amen.

P I will praise the Lord as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

Collect of the Day

P Almighty God, You invite us to trust in You for our salvation. Deal with us not in the severity of Your judgment but by the greatness of Your mercy; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gradual

Psalm 91:11; 103:1

P He will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.
Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and all that is within me, bless his holy name!

Below you will find a model you can use for your personal or family devotions that focuses you on the readings from the previous Sunday, while also preparing you for what you will hear the following Sunday. In modeling your devotions this way, you and your family can stay united to the church year and reinforce what you hear, sing, and pray every Sunday.

- Mon. 10/12: Read the Old Testament lesson: Isaiah 25:6-9 – We rejoice in the salvation which God accomplishes for us and all people by swallowing up death forever.
Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 510 – A Multitude Comes from the East and the West
Pray the Collect of the Day: Almighty God, You invite us to trust in You for our salvation. Deal with us not in the severity of Your judgment but by the greatness of Your mercy; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
- Tues. 10/13: Read the Epistle lesson: Philippians 4:4-13 – In Christ, we rejoice and are content in all circumstances as He guards and keeps our hearts and minds by His grace.
Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 510 – A Multitude Comes from the East and the West
Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 10/12)
- Wed. 10/14: Read the Gospel lesson: Matthew 22:1-14 – The Lord calls all people to come to His wedding feast freely. It is open to all, even though some will sadly decline the invitation. The Lord, however, will never stop inviting all people to come.
Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 510 – A Multitude Comes from the East and the West
Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 10/12)
- Thur. 10/15: Read the Old Testament lesson: Isaiah 45:1-7 – While the Lord may use means, like Cyrus, to rescue His people, it is still the Lord who saves, not the means.
Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 940 – Holy God, We Praise Thy Name
Pray the Collect of the Day: O God, the protector of all who trust in You, have mercy on us that with You as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
- Fri. 10/16: Read the Epistle lesson: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10 – Like Paul, we give thanks for all of the saints who receive the Word of God as we do in good times and in bad.
Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 940 – Holy God, We Praise Thy Name
Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 10/15)
- Sat. 10/17: Read the Gospel lesson: Matthew 22:15-22 – As images and labels may tell us who something belongs to, so too does Christ remind us that all things belong to God, who created and redeems them all.
Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 940 – Holy God, We Praise Thy Name
Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 10/15)

MEMBERS AND GUESTS:

If you are partaking of the Lord's Supper, please read and fill out one of the registration cards on the back of the pew. You may place it in the offering plate or hand it to the usher. Please also see the communion statement on the inside of the bulletin.

Families and Children:

We are glad you are here to receive the Lord's gifts together. Your presence is a gift from God and a reminder of Christ's words: "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 19:14)
